ALL-COUNTY LETTER NO. 74-149

TO: ALL COUNTY WELFARE DIRECTORS

SUBJECT: APPLICATION OF 30-DAY DISCONTINUANCE TO AFDC-FG CASES

REFERENCE:

Mr. Swoap's letter of February 8, 1974, remains in effect with the following clarification for AFDC-FG cases.

At the expiration of the 30-day penalty period, a recipient who is out of a "Family Group" case Family Budget Unit due to the application of an Employables sanction shall be automatically restored to aid.

It shall be the county's responsibility at the time of discontinuance to inform the sanctioned individual of the automatic restoration (for AFDC-U -- of his right to reapply).

Any individuals, other than U-parents, who have been discontinued under the Employables sanction and have remained off aid beyond the 30 days because of the failure to request restoration, shall be restored to aid as soon as administratively feasible. Aid shall be restored retroactively to the expiration date of the 30-day discontinuance period.

Please direct any questions pertaining to the 30-day discontinuance to Mary Rockwood, AFDC Program Operations Bureau (916) 445-4458.

Sincerely,

DENNIS O. FLATT
Deputy Director
Welfare Program Operations
